Better Than the Movies
Lynn Painter

What a cute YA novel. A nice escape. Where at the beginning of each chapter we are provided with a lovely quote from one of our favorite romcom movies that reminds of us how much we love romance.

Caraval
Stephanie Garber

One of my favorite parts of this book is the world! I would LOVE to attend Caraval. It's so magical and dark and mysterious. I also love that this book combines romance, fantasy, and mystery. I loved following all the clues along with Scarlett to try and find her sister. At no point did I know how this book was going to end. I need to read book two ASAP!
